NEWSLETTER

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas....

We are very busy beginning to get ready for Christmas; practising songs and lines and making scenery! It is a lovely time of year in school and staff are working hard to make it special. As always we are so grateful for all the fantastic parent support as we couldn't do half the things that we offer the children without you!

Christmas with the Aliens!

This is the title of our production this year. It will be performed in school on Wednesday 12th December at 6.30pm. Costumes need to be into school by Friday 7th December. This year we will not be charging for tickets, but instead having a collection at the end for a charity chosen by the children. We are initially able to offer 6 tickets per family.

Christmas Fair – Friday 7th December.

The Christmas fair will start at 6.30pm at the Memorial Hall. The children will be performing a few Christmas Carols at 7.15pm. This should be a fun community event – remember that there are foot long sausages on sale so no need to eat first! Please bring donations of mulled wine, raffle prizes and chocolate for the chocolate tombola to the school office by the morning of Friday 7th.

Christmas 'Stay and Play'

We have invited children who have been to look around school for Nursery and Reception to a Christmas craft and play session on Tuesday 4th December from 1.30-3.00pm. If you know anyone else who has a little one who would like to come along, please invite them.

School Christmas lunch – Friday 7th December

If you would like to order a Christmas dinner for your child you need to order on-line through 'Lunch shop' by the end of this week. Children can wear Christmas jumpers or another favourite top/jumper that day. It will be outdoor learning in the afternoon as usual.

Carol singing and library visit

We have been invited to sing carols in Kendal library on the morning of Wednesday 19th December. They will also be given a snack and have an introduction to the town library and a chance to look around the children's section. We will be going in staff cars and have parking arranged at County Hall.

Christmas parties

Our school Christmas party for the children will be on Friday 14th December. Children can wear Christmas jumpers/party clothes that day. Further details to follow.
